Spa Report

CLUMBER PARK HOTEL AND SPA, WORKSOP, NOTTINGHAMSHIRE

FACILITIES

Nestled in the heart of Sherwood Forest deep in Robin Hood country, this spa hotel offers a wealth of outdoor activities.

Guests can enjoy pony trekking, archery, Segway trailing and laser clay pigeon shooting.

The hotel's New Leaf Spa has an outdoor sunken hot tub, 12-metre indoor pool, right, and adjoining Jacuzzi. The spa also has a bar, café and comfy lounge with leather armchairs.

The hotel, which welcomes dogs, is fancy without being fussy. Rooms are stylish and the two fabulous eateries, the Courtyard Restaurant and less formal Normanton Inn, serve local produce and fish fresh from Grimsby Docks.

Oh, and if you can't face the drive there's a helipad available.

TREATMENTS AVAILABLE

As well as Elemis massages and facials there are holistic Ytsara treatments based on ancient Thai rituals. Also available are a men's range, a massage for mums-to-be and signature treatments including a chocolate ritual and colon cleanse.

TREATMENTS TESTED

Kamatan, Path To Tranquillity massage, 85 minutes, £90
This heavenly Thai muscle-relaxer involved massaging my entire body and scalp with warm oil and a hot herbal poultice infused with sweet basil and kaffir lime. I had to fight to stay awake and left the treatment room feeling very calm.

I was given the mushroom-shaped poultice to keep and told I could microwave it and reuse it either on my body or as a room diffuser.

Visible Brilliance Facial, 70 minutes, £68

My skin was cleansed, toned, and exfoliated gently and two masks were applied, all using aromatic Elemis products. During this time I was given a neck, shoulder and head massage (firm at my request) ending with a deeply moisturising hand and arm massage.

A trial has shown just one treatment increases the skin's moisture levels and elasticity and I must say my 40-something skin had a plumpness and radiance not seen for a decade.

GOOD POINTS

I enjoyed the friendly, cheerful, helpful staff, the quirky interior touches (such as a chandelier made of coloured wine glasses), and the mini Elemis products in the hotel rooms.

WHAT DOES IT COST?

The Beauty and the Feast package includes a night's stay, breakfast, £25 towards dinner, one 55-minute treatment (either Elemis Face and Body Duo Sensation or Elemis Modern Skincare Facial) and costs £109 (£119 on Saturday) per person.
